

LEGAL REPRESENTATIVES

The following are Solicitors that have confirmed their availability to accept new immigration clients in the West Midlands primarily on legal aid, and the way in which they will operate. As the situation is changing regularly, please double check their requirements when you call. If you find anything in this list to be different, please let us know so that we can update our information. Also, if you know of any Solicitors that we could add to this resource please email carmen@khaitzedek.uk
Thank you.

Prospective clients would need to book appointments in advance. Visitors need to ensure that they wear a mask when they come to the office by appointment. Representatives should also ensure prospective clients bring their Section 95 immigration support letters or Section 4 information. Please note that we are now open but face to face contact with clients is only by appointment. Clients must also bring their face masks when they come for appointment. They will also be expected to comply with Government Guidance which are in place at our offices. Appointments placed through main contact number above or contact us by email You will need to advise us of the nature of NASS support and requirement for interpreters. We are unable to give clients advice over the phone before file opening. Legal aid.

We are currently taking new immigration / asylum clients. The preferred process is for us to see clients and their documents to assess if they are eligible for legal aid – they must have Section 95 support. Due to the current pandemic, we are not seeing clients face to face, rather all documents are sent to our email and after perusal we will contact client and take further instructions on their case, and make representation to Home Office on their behalf.
